Adventures in Excellence

We know that fun is the key to motivation. Our facilitators have helped hundreds of companies just like yours improve their performance and energize their human resources. We'll present your team with customized training and challenges designed to increase flexibility, creativity, trust and communication. We can customize our programs and activities to meet your specific needs and goals. We specialize in building results-oriented team building experiences that leave lasting impressions with you and your team.

COMMUNICATE – “Excitement in the ‘Bored’ Room”
Welcome to a new and exciting way of understanding ourselves and others. These workshops provide a lasting positive impact on your team dynamics and, ultimately, on the bottom line.

- Personality Dimensions™ - Learn new found understanding of yourself and others
- Power Hour – 7 team boosting sessions, all one-hour in length

“The whole team enjoyed the experience and took away some learnings that will help us break down internal barriers and interact more positively. One sign of a great event – I didn’t see anyone texting or browsing the whole time! Recommended.” – Personality Dimensions – Conros

PARTICIPATE – “Get Up & Get Out”
Add some friendly competition to your teambuilding and work together to achieve your mission, whether you take things to new heights, problem solve, or conquer new challenges.

- Survivor
- CSI Challenge
- The Amazing Race
- Mini Olympics
- Smart Phone Mission
- Geocaching
- Climbing Wall (Indoor)
- Ultimate Challenge Course
- Adventure Challenge
- Resort Boot Camp
- Ready, Aim, Paintball!

“Very organized and well thought out. Great Team Building and so much fun! The challenges were tough but doable and forced you to lean on your team which is the point! Highly recommended!” – Amazing Race – Cook Medical

Exclusive to Skyline Hotels & Resorts, Adventures in Excellence provides your organization with a seamless, results-oriented teambuilding experience that will take your team to the next level. More than a collection of recreational activities, our programs are designed for lasting results.
