Meet Jimmy!

1926

In 1897, Jim Clarke was born in Huntsville, Ontario. A hardworking man with a sharp knife and a big heart, he opened Jimmy's Meats in 1926- a humble butcher shop known for quality cuts, honest work and a handshake you could trust. All of his food was farm to plate, raising all of his own cattle for the shop.

For over 40 years, he served the community with pride until hanging up his apron in 1968.

Nearly a century later, his spirit lives on- reimagined, but not forgotten.

I'm his grandson, and this food truck is my way of continuing what he started: serving from scratch dishes with quality ingredients, rooting ourselves in Jimmy's local tradition. From freshly made sausages to bold street style poutine and tacos, everything here is made with the same care Jimmy put into everything. and.....

our home based kitchen is even on the land where Jimmy farmed all those years ago.
